Su Hart will perform Celtic songs and other music to join her and sing together.

This is a feast of music, sounds and joy.
Come and join us!

An diesem Abend werden wir zuhören, singen

Su Hart

Is an experienced and engaging teacher with a joyful and supportive style, a dynamic choir leader and singer-songwriter who has been performing and teaching internationally for over 20 years.

Su has had many musical travels, collecting songs from Scotland to Scandanavia, from New Zealand to Bhutan. Since 1993 she has made many visits to the African Rainforest in Cameroon, to sing and live with the Baka Pygmies.

The collective spiritual singing of the Baka women has informed and inspired her musical development. This led to setting up the acclaimed world-music band Baka Beyond in 1993, melding African rhythms with Celtic melodies.
